SALE OF REAL ESTATE.

Common Court Sale of Real Estate.

Supreme Court of Tennessee, at Jackson—
A. Apperson, Executor of Wade H. Bolton, decd., vs. Charles Jones et al.; and R. J.
Administrator, vs. Charles Jones et al.
The decree pronounced by the Honorable the Supreme Court, at Jackson, April 18, in these consolidated causes, I will offer up to the highest bidder, at the southwest corner of Main and Madison streets, in the city of Memphis, on Monday, December 6, 1880.

The parcels of land mentioned and described in the decree, as follows:
A certain lot of land situated in the city of Memphis, Tennessee, and bounded as follows: It being lot No. 338, as laid down on the map of the city of Memphis, and beginning at the

the following lot or parcel of land, situate in Memphis, Shelby county, Tennessee, and being lot No. 98, as laid down on the plan of the Memphis, being on the west side of Main between Monroe and Union streets, it being and the same is hereby declared to be the west side of Main street, it being lot No. 3 subdivision of said lot 98, between Lydia M. Ma, Thomas J. Turley and J. M. Williamson, is fully shown by the deed of partition bein book No. 14, pages 236 and 237 of records of Shelby county, to which deed is made; said lot fronting 18 feet 9 inches west side of Main street, and running back on year 1861 line 100 feet, an alley, and adjoins on the south by lot No. 4 of said subdivision No. 36, now owned in common by estate of Mrs. J. Turley and W. A. Williamson; and north by lot No. 2 of said subdivision of lot now owned by said John J. Turley; which lot is a four-story brick store building, known as No. 317 Main street, in Memphis, to improve thereon.

Said lot No. 358 first above described, will be divided and sold in several parts, separately, as follows:

The rear part of the lot, that is the part on the side which is between the alley on the east and a line parallel with the west boundary of

ly, beginning at a point in the south boundary of the lot, the north line of the street and the east line of the brick wellinghouse, which is estimated to be 48½ feet from the south corner of the lot, and running thence northward and parallel with the west boundary of the lot to the north boundary of the lot to the east corner of the lot, and thence eastward to the east line of the brick wellinghouse, consisting of two tenements fronting Monroe street, shall be divided into two the partition line between which two parts be a line passing north and south through the center of the wellinghouse, and dividing the same into two tenements, and extending from the south line of the lot to the north boundary, and feet of ground lying east and adjoining the tenement, extending from Monroe street to the south boundary of the lot, and the east line of the lot, and the north boundary of the lot, and the west boundary, hereinbefore designated, of the part next hereinafter described.

The part of the lot fronting on Second and Second streets, and wherein are four brick stores, to be divided into three parts, the first of which shall be bounded on the south by the north line of the street, on the north by a line extending to the west line of the building, and lot 354, through the center of the partition wall, which divides the lot into two parts, the first of which shall be 10 ft. The second of which parts shall be a lot on which is the storehouse next north of said described part, which second lot shall be bounded on the north by a line extending from the west line of the building, to the north line of the street, and on the south by a line extending through the center of the brick partition wall, which divides this second storehouse from the house next north of the said second storehouse. The third of which parts shall be a lot on which is the third storehouse, to-wit: the lot which is bounded on the north by the north line of the said second lot, and is bounded on outh by the before-described north boundary second lot, and on the north by a line extending from the west line of the building and across the street to the east line of the storehouse, through the center of the partition wall which divides said third storehouse from the store next north.

The fourth of which parts is the lot on which is located the fourth storehouse, and is bounded south by the north boundary of said third lot; east: a line extending from the west line of the building and lot 308, eastwardly through the center of the partition wall which divides it from the first lot, and the north boundary of said fourth lot; north: the boundary line between lots 307 and 308, the most northern of the four storehouses, lots or lots. The east boundary of each of these lots is the line on which is the east face of the east side of the above building, and this line bears at right angles to the north line.

lot 336, about 100 feet eastwardly of the southeast corner of the lot 358, and runs northwardly to the east side the east wall of the building on the north boundary of the lot 358. The width of the lot is 100 feet. The building and the dwellinghouse building, shall be used and enjoyed forever for the use and privilege of the owners of the storehouse lots in common with the owners of the adjoining lot, wherein the lot 358 is situated.

Each of the said storehouse lots will be sold separately, and the lots wherein are the two dwellinghouse tenements, and the lot on the east end of 358, will be sold separately.

It is further agreed that the storehouse lots I have the privilege and right for three months after confirmation of the report of sale to be use of the present stairways which go short of the halls on the second and third stories of the building.
